TRIBUTE TO A TREE

"I think that I shall never see a poem lovely as a tree.
A tree who doth in summer wear a nest of robins in her hair."

* * * * *

I am thinking of a particular tree, one that was a giant of a tree, strong, tall with branches widespread. It stands at the corner of Piron's Street and Sir Winston Churchill Avenue, where it has stood for many years.

I've only been acquainted with this tree for three years, and I now must speak of it in hushed tones as one would in the vestibule of a church before the last tribute to a companion departed from this world. Passing it as we drive through St. Albert, I silently salute, remembering it as it once was, proud and elegant, green branches waving in every breeze.

It was a protection to the first cenotaph, a fitting background for many wreath-laying services, where townspeople came to pay tribute to fallen comrades and loved ones.

It must have worn many "a nest in her hair". Squirrels and birds found refuge along its trunk and branches as well as other small rodents whose color blended in with nature's seasons.

Enthusiastic Christmas decorators with their deliberate use of artificial electric lights, made it come alive in the evenings, and cheered folks passing by in winters' coldest weather, but hardly surpassed the beauty of morning's sudden descent of hoar-frost, leaving lacy patterns of white frost outlining each pointed fir tuft, until this tall tree stood arrayed in a sparkling diamond-studded dress, exquisite and breathtaking as the first sight of a radiant bride.

This tree, now dead, faces across the Avenue the new cenotaph, where a short time ago rigid sentinels stood.

What changes a few years bring, evoking memories of days gone by. What sadness fills me as I see this tree, reduced to a grey, gaunt mass of dried and twisted limbs protruding from its lifeless trunk. Will it endure one more Christmas? Will it remain on its corner and witness happy shoppers and carolers hurrying by?

I hope so, and I wish that fresh fluffy snow will fall like soft lamb's wool to cover its bareness, and restore some beauty to a grand old veteran who has served us well. If I had a third wish, and if I were tall, I would reach and plant a silver star upon each weary shoulder where all could see and rejoice once more that it is there!

Our prayers and sincere sympathy are offered to Mr. & Mrs. Oulmet whose son Denis met his death so tragically. CONGRATULATIONS to the Knights of the Altar and to Father Levangie, the Brothers and the senior boys who instruct them and encourage faithfulness in their assignments to serve at Christ's Altars. Forty Altar Boys took part in an impressive Investiture and promotion ceremony which was arranged so that it took place within the conduct of the Holy Mass on Sunday at 7:30 p.m. The Boys themselves must have felt at this ceremony the great privilege they enjoy and they may well be proud of their promotion for faithful service. The parents too must realize the value of this service and its influence on our Catholic youth. Let us express our admiration and gratitude to our boys and those who guide them.

Many C. W. L. Members and parents of our Parish missed a very informative and interesting meeting on Dec. 6. Those who attended were certainly pleased that they had not forgotten the date or had been unavoidably deprived of the opportunity to attend. We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to Mr. V. Maloney and Mr. Max Gibb and hope the small audience would not discourage them from accepting an invitation to address us at another time. What they had to say should be heard by all Catholic adults. Once you have the correct information on a subject it is easy to understand and clarify any problem. Further programs are being considered and your wholehearted support will be requested. May we hear it? PLEASE.

Youville Home: Reports have it that the completion of the new home is not far off. The kitchen and laundry equipment is now being installed and the Sisters will very soon hear the glad tidings that all is in readiness for the "Big Move".

UNITED CHURCH

Christmas festivities are well under way in the United Church. Little children up to grade 2 brought and presented their white gifts at the morning service on Sunday December 12th. Children from grades 3 on, presented a Christmas Pageant Sunday evening to a large group of parents. A social time of coffee and cookies followed the Pageant in the lower church hall.

A special Christmas service will be conducted Sunday December 19th, when the senior choir will sing special Christmas anthems. The senior choir will also provide us with an evening of Christmas music on Sunday at 7:30 p.m. A Christmas Eve service will also be conducted on Friday December 24th, at 7:30 p.m. when our newly formed intermediate choir will sing Christmas music under the leadership of Mr. Eric Robinson.

The senior choir members are planning to go carolling at the Youville Home on Sunday at 3:00 p.m. Our Hi-C Young People's group had an interesting meeting Sunday evening at the Myrthen home when they had a discussion on Teen-age boy-girl relationships. Refreshments and a social time followed on Sunday evening December 19th. They are planning a tobogganing party, leaving the church at 7:30 p.m. and proceeding as a group to the Mission Hill. They will return to the home of Mr. & Mrs. Harvey at 52, St. Michael Drive for exchange of gifts and refreshments. Please bring a toboggan and a fifty cent gift.

A service of Baptism is planned for Sunday December 26th, at the morning service.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

There will be a service of worship on Christmas Day at 11 p.m. The place will be announced later this week.

On December 19th at 7 p.m. there will be a special Christmas Program at the Recreation Centre. Everyone is welcome. There will be no charge or silver collection.

Services Sunday were conducted by Mr. Glenn Sinclair of the University of Alberta. The minister was absent conducting communion services at Chauvin and Wainwright.

The offering from the Scouts own service December 5th was turned over to the Christmas Hamper Bureau. The contribution amounted to $24.78. The thanks of the minister of Braeside congregation and of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides go to the United Church for making their church available to us. Scout services are held 3 times a year under the joint auspices of the St. Albert Ministerial Association, the Boy Scout Group Committee and the St. Albert Group of the Girl Guides of Canada.

Best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year are extended by the members of Braeside Presbyterian Church to the residents of St. Albert.

SURVEY REVEALS INFLUENCE OF RETREAT MOVEMENT.

The importance of Closed Retreats and a movement towards sharing this enriching experience was the topic of conversation and discussion among two-hundred Retreat organizers who attended the December 5th. Captains Workshop at Club Mocombo.

Mr. Ed. Hamula, Public Relations consultant and an active retreatant, revealed to the group, conclusions of a survey on the retreat house conducted through northern Alberta among people of different faiths and representing different age groups. Results show that many people are aware of the retreat house but also that many who have attended retreats have not communicated their experiences to others. Recruiters concluded that the benefits of the retreats must be publicized and revealed to the prospective retreatant. Special honors were extended to Mr. & Mrs. "Rocky" Forest on the occasion of their resignation as Patrons of the Star of the North, a position they have held since 1959. Also present as guest speaker was Doctor Leonard Patterson of Red Deer. Mr. Ray Thomas, former federal member of Parliament was chairman for the day.

Mrs. Florence Lefebvre.

SUNDAY CONCERT AT THE EDMONTON PUBLIC LIBRARY.

On Sunday afternoon, December 19, from 2 to 3 p.m., the Public Library again presents a stereo concert on pre-recorded tapes. This week Pomp and Circumstance, marches by famous composers will be performed by the Grenadier Guards, conducted by Captain Bashford.

The program will be in the music room, admission free.

Knights of Columbus

More on Hockey . . .

Plans for the hockey season in St. Albert this winter are gradually being finalized. Bro. Alex Gauthier, the Youth Activity Chairman, has been busy the last few weeks organizing hockey on behalf of the Knights of Columbus.

As matters stand at present, St. Albert will be sponsoring, in one way or another, four hockey teams this season. One of these teams will be the Squires team which has been set up to compete in a special category against two other St. Albert teams. These three special teams will have mixed boys and may provide for equalization. In any case, they will play once a week and twice every second week.

It appears that Bro. Steve Kalita will again be in charge of a hockey team from St. Albert that will play in the Northwest Community League of Edmonton. This particular team was sponsored by the Columbus Club in the past.

Two other teams will again wear the 'St. Albert K.C.' uniform this year. One of them will be a Bantam team and the other a Mite team. These two teams will play in the St. Albert Minor Hockey League under the supervision of the Recreation Department. K.C. sponsorship in this case involves mostly uniforms, as the Recreation Department is understood to see after obtaining coaches and providing some equipment.

RECOGNITION & AWARD NIGHT

Saturday, Feb. 5, 1966 will see the first of what is hoped will become an annual event in St. Albert — the first annual Recognition and Award Night. Beginning with a banquet at 6:30 p.m. in the Club Mocomba, the evening will also feature a guest speaker, followed by an extensive presentation of awards to worthy citizens of St. Albert.

The Recognition and Award Night is being organized jointly by St. Albert Council 4742 of the Knights of Columbus and the Recreation Department of the Town of St. Albert. The Knights are in charge of preparations and advertising for the banquet. The Recreation Department will assume responsibility for obtaining a guest speaker and arranging for awards.

Several types of awards are being proposed for presentation at the Recognition and Award Night. All awards, however, are intended to provide public recognition to persons and groups who have rendered outstanding service. On behalf of the Recreation Board, recognition will be provided for recreation volunteers who have met the requirements of eligibility of the Town. The Recreation Dept. also plans to present an Outstanding Recreation Volunteer award to the person who has done the most to enhance recreation in St. Albert. An award is being proposed for the service club that has done the most towards helping, promoting or assisting in the field of recreation. The Knights intend to sponsor a Citizen of the Year Award to be awarded to the citizen who has given outstanding service to the town or brought recognition to St. Albert. It is also suggested that each club consider providing an award to the person in their club who has done the most in the field of recreation, or in any other endeavor.

Christmas Hamper Assembly and Delivery

One of the biggest and most important projects for St. Albert Council will get under way on December 23. This is the annual Christmas Hamper Assembly and Delivery, carried out in conjunction with Catholic Charities of Edmonton. The assembly and distribution centre for this huge undertaking will be the former H.M.C.S. Nonsuch headquarters below the Mar.

St. Albert Council will be responsible for transporting to the distribution centre some of the food left over from last year which is presently being stored at St. Theresa's Church. In addition, workers from St. Albert will transport the turkeys to the distribution centre on the morning of the 23rd. After the hamper assembly is completed, any left over food will have to be brought back to St. Theresa's.

All brothers of St. Albert Council will be expected to make an effort to help deliver the Christmas Hampers to needy families. Delivery time for workers from St. Albert is 12 noon to 7 p.m. on December 23. All brothers who have in the past delivered hampers should encourage those who haven't to do so. When you are called, won't you find it in your heart to do yourself this one favor for Christmas — see the tears of gratefulness for the little thing you have done for someone in need? You'll never regret it. If you wish to volunteer your services, you may call Bro. Paul Shelemey at 599-8386.

a year of MERRY CHRISTMASSES

A spirit of good cheer prevails throughout the year in the greetings tendered by your Welcome Wagon hostess. And, as a Christmas tree ornament reproduces the light of a tree, the spirit of good cheer reflects from your sponsorship every day of the year.

Though Christmas comes but once, the Welcome Wagon comes again and again . . . with a brightening effect on the recipients of your gifts, as well as on their neighbors and friends. Nothing spreads faster—or goes as far without diminishing—as an act of kindness.

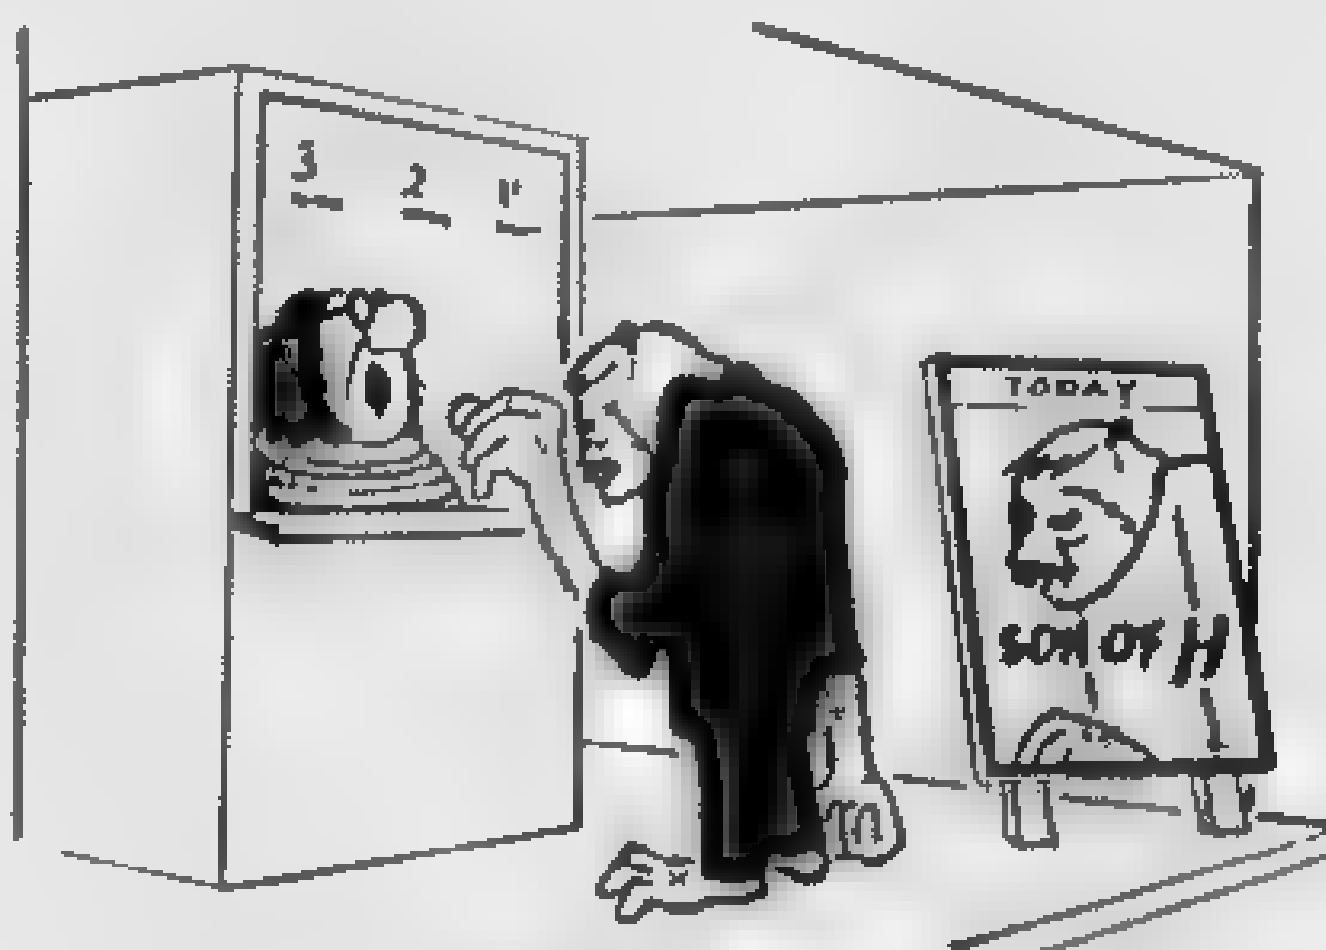

We hope our association which expresses the spirit of Christmas as surely in July as in December—may continue to grow and prosper.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGES

Alexander, Caesar and Napoleon. He could have come with a blaze of wealth and luxury. He could have come with a host of soldiers and would have paled the courts of the world. He could have had our respect, our admiration, our fear and praise, our service and even to a certain extent, our love. But it would not be the all-out love we give to a baby. He would have lacked the laughter and the heart throbs that the human spirit bestows on a helpless little one, so Christ became a helpless little one instead of a mighty ruler. Jesus came into the world helpless and homeless. Shepherds were the first to hear of his coming. They brought gifts of milk and bread, and most precious of all, their love. Wise men crossed the continent carrying gorgeous gifts. They came to give to the Christ Child, but of all their gifts, the most precious was their love. Christ, by his birth, gave more than he received. If we will, we will find more joy in giving than receiving. Every gift at this season of giving can be given because of the Christ Child and given in the spirit of Christ, for his sake, and the sake of Christ's children. The poor, neglected, weak and weary, will receive a rich recompense. In one way or another, we all have the opportunity to share in giving and sharing with the more unfortunate. May this sharing bring to you the many blessings of the Christ Child.

A MERRY AND HOLY CHRISTMAS TO ALL.

M. J. Lafrance O. T. I.
Pastor St. Albert Parish

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE - UNITED CHURCH by Leonard J. B.

These would be the words I would like to use to express my good wishes to everyone of our Community. "This Christmas, as you come again to the life to the Christ child, may you find for the year ahead Peace and labour and a light heart. A sense of vocation and a sense of hope but not tense, alert but not anxious. Employed but not busy. A sense of purpose. In a word - Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE - PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH by Rev. R.

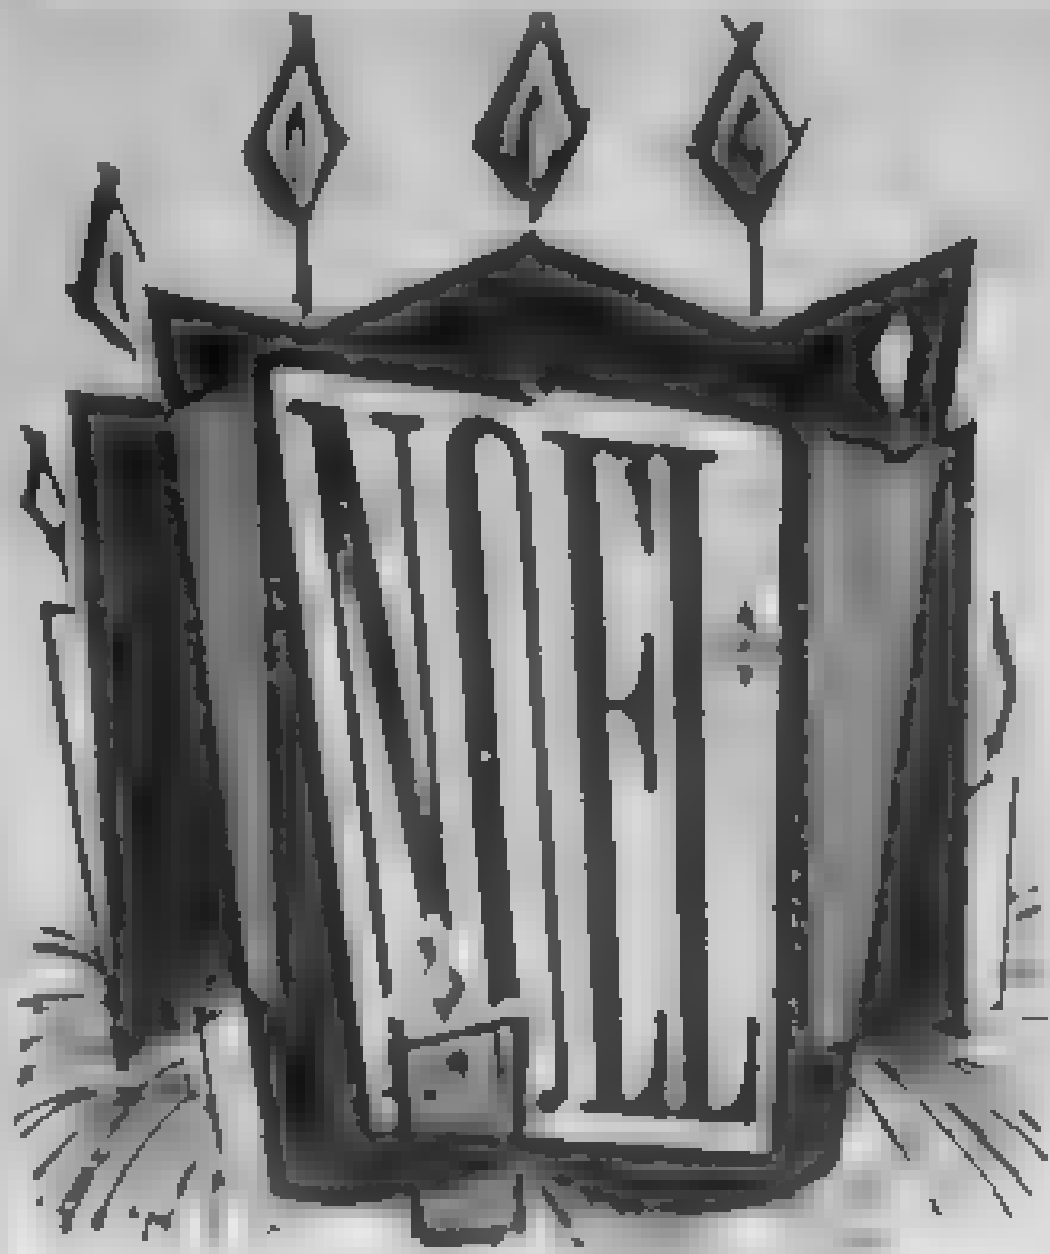

Several years ago on a leading national T. V. show, the moderator asked the question, "Which Christmas is the most memorable one in your life?" A member of the panel gave an answer. The irony of it was that he believed in Jesus Christ. One was an avowed atheist, the second was a Christian who had rejected its claims on his life. The third member of the panel belonged to a school of thought which accepts Jesus Christ as an historical person and no more. Strangely enough this is the setting that modern day Christmas has become. Sometimes we forget that Christmas is primarily a Christian festival. For many of us, the religious aspect of Christmas has become a second thought. What is your most memorable Christmas, a secular one, or one where Christ is central? Of course history's most memorable Christmas was the very first one when mankind heard for the first time, "Behold I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people for unto you is born this day a son who shall save Israel." Every Christmas should be a memorable one if we can recall the very first Christmas, returning in our hearts and minds to the manger of Bethlehem, to see what great thing God has done for us.

Mr. Jim Cassidy, a former parishioner, and Mr. V. Maloney. We extend our warmest wishes to you all. The St. Albert United Church.

members of the Mixed Choir filled the Home with the sound of beautiful carols and the true Spirit of the season. The Sisters, staff and residents enjoyed and appreciated it and wish to thank all those who took part.

The excitement of the forthcoming transfer to new surroundings is becoming much more evident. Not only the staff, but the residents are finding it difficult to contain their curiosity and patience to see what the "Big Move" has to offer.

THE STAR OF THE NORTH RETREAT HOUSE reports that Co-ordinator, Mrs. J. Flaherty and Captains Mrs. L. Macindale, Mrs. E. J. McLaughlin, Mrs. William Soprovich, Mrs. F. J. Douglas, and Mrs. J. Krupa, are making every effort to promote a successful retreat for

Twenty ANGLICAN PRIESTS of the Edmonton Diocese have made their seventh annual retreat at the Retreat House, which for the first time was conducted by a Catholic Priest, Rev. Fr. F. Thibault, C.M.I.

SQUIRETTES OF MARY will be Carol Singing in St. Albert on Christmas Eve. They will round off their evening with lunch and gift exchanging at the home of Lucille Munroe before proceeding to Midnight Mass.

saturday morning December 18, for a grand Christmas skating party of plenty of fun and no serious bumps or bruises.

The regular full dress Church Parade of the Cubs, Scouts, Brownies and Guides was held Sunday December 19 at 12:30 p.m. With the Lector and Commentator in uniform, and the boys and girls receiving Holy Communion in a body, it was an impressive ceremony.

A Cub-Scout Meeting will be held on January 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the church basement. All parents who are interested in scouting are asked to attend. An appeal is made for Cub and Scout uniforms. Any part of the uniform will be welcomed and put to good use. Please contact Mrs. Ann Kehoe at 599-7440. The boys have been working hard and many Christmas programs are being planned for them.

An ecumenical milestone was passed last Sunday at St. Joseph's Seminary in St. Albert when Archbishop Anthony Jordan, O.M.I., concelebrated a High Mass with Bishop Neil Savaryn of the Eparchy of Edmonton.

The rare occasion was attended by the students of the Roman Catholic Seminary on St. Albert Trail, and a number of interested lay persons from Edmonton and St. Albert. The ceremony, which marked a first for Edmonton, was intended to be a practical demonstration of the unity of the Catholic Church in its several rites. The Mass was concelebrated in the Latin rite by the two bishops and five other priests, one of which was of the Ukrainian Rite. The four others of the Latin Rite are from St. Joseph's seminary.

The Kyrie of the Mass was sung in Greek by the congregation, and the first lesson was read in Ukrainian. Other parts of the Mass were sung in English, while the canon was recited by the concelebrants in Latin. The various languages used in the one sacrifice was an excellent practical demonstration of the Church's unity in the various rites of the Catholic Church. In his sermon, Father Sheridan, staff member of St. Joseph's Seminary, expressed the hope of all present that the rare and possibly unique ceremony being celebrated would be only the first of many such occasions in the months and years to come. "If the sincerest hopes of many Christians are realized that the Orthodox Church and the Catholic Church be united according to Christ's will, the ceremony which is enacted here", he said, "will have been a foreshadowing of that happy day."

A Beautiful Christmas

Even today, as I sit alone at my face as my memory goes back to the faraway '30's and to a bitter at morning to a weather 30° below, and the steadily falling snow did not add to the happy peck of a bright Christmas in that desolate, isolated prairie district.

ventured to poke one arm out under the warm blankets to reach for my clothes and endeavour to dress without getting uncovered. One look at the frost on the walls was enough to make one retreat further under the blankets, as heat was unknown in that cold upstairs bedroom of our farm home. Finally, with one mad dash, I made it downstairs to the crackling wood fire which was already surrounded by the youngest members of the family, shoving and bickering, trying to get as near the warm stove as possible. The excitement and preparation for the five children that day made the doubts and worry my Father and Mother must have had to ever think of venturing out on such a dreadfully cold night with a family of five in an open sleigh. But what
